

Clearance Certificate

Dear customer,
the legal regulations for handling with substances that are hazardous for health and the environment as well as the regulations for safety at work make it necessary to complete this clearance certificate. We ask you for your understanding that we don't accept your order without the completely filled form.

1. General Information:

Module name:

Serial number:

2. Operating materials, e.g. chemicals, acids, toxical gases or bases with which the device/ assembly came into contact :

3. Declaration of the hazardousness of the substances (please check the relevant boxes)

- We assure for the above mentioned device that
 - no toxic, corrosive, microbiological, explosive, radioactive or other dangerous contamination occurred
 - the module is free of hazardous substances
- We assure for the above mentioned device that all toxic, corrosive, microbiological, explosive, radioactive and other hazardous substances, which came in contact with the device has been
 - cleaned
 - decontaminated
 - sterilizedaccording to legal regulations
- It cannot be excluded that there is a residual risk of contamination.(See in point 2.)

4. The undersigned declared

- that the device has been carefully cleaned before delivery
- that the information given on this form is correct and complete

Place,Date

Signature customer